

Robert's Rules of Order/Parliamentary Procedure

Process of the Meeting

- Chairs call the meeting to order
 - "I call the meeting to order at ___"
- "Moving onto roll call..."
 - Say "here" when your name has been called
- "We are now in excused absences and proxies..."
 - Max of 2 excused absences per quarter
 - After 2 excused absences, your honoraria will be deducted (exceptions may apply)
- "Moving onto New Business, we have..."
 - Groups might come to present for
 - Funding
 - Collaboration ideas
 - Here is where we will hear all funding requests and ask questions as necessary
- "Moving onto Reports"
 - Chairs, Directors of Subcommittees, Publicity Chair, etc. will deliver their reports and any other exec member will deliver their reports if applicable

Process of the Meeting CONT.

- "Moving onto the acceptance of agenda"
 - The agenda for today must be accepted (motions will be covered later)
- "Now moving onto old business"
 - Anything that was tabled from the week before will show up here
 - We typically do not have anything under old business
- "Now moving onto the acceptance of minutes"
 - Must accept minutes from the week before
 - Must accept any email votes that were taken in the time between this meeting and the week prior
- Adjournment
 - Fancy word for ending the meeting
 - Must be motioned

Making Motions

- Motions have to be made for
 - Funding Requests
 - Fully fund, partially fund, etc.
 - Acceptance of Agenda
 - Accepting Proxies/excused absences
 - Adjournment
- Motion Language
 - "Motion to fund [ORG NAME] $[AMOUNT OF MONEY] for [ITEMS]"
 - "Motion to accept the agenda"
 - "Motion to bundle and approve excused absences and proxies"
 - "Motion to adjourn"
- Seconds
 - After a motion is made, someone needs to "second" the motion (done by raising your arm and being recognized by the chairs)

Making Motions CONT.

- Calling to question
 - Done after someone "seconds" the motion
- Example run through
 - A: "Motion to fully fund X $50 for food"
 - Chair: "There is a motion to fully fund X $50 for food is there a second?"
 - B: raises arm
 - Chair: "Seconded by B, we are now in discussion"
 - C: raises arm and is called on by the chair "call to question"
 - Chair: "Question has been called is there objection to call to question?"
 - Everyone: "Consent"
 - Chair: "Is there objection to consent? Seeing none, motion passes."

Exceptions

- Objections
 - Objecting to CALL TO QUESTION
 - Move back into discussion
 - Objecting to CONSENT
 - Move into a vote to vote
 - Deciding whether or not to vote on something
 - A "yes" vote = yes we should vote
 - If a vote to vote PASSES, we move into a hand vote
 - Voting on the topic at hand
 - If a vote to vote FAILS, we move back into discussion
- If you are requesting money for another group you are a part of, you must leave the room while motions are being made (only applicable if you are also on exec board)
 - Conflict of interest
- Any questions?
